Lokopriya Gopinath Bordoloi Regional Institute of Mental Health Tezpur

INTRODUCTION

Lokopriya Gopinath Bordoloi Regional Institute of Mental Health (LGBRIMH) is a premier Mental Health Institute in Northeast India. The Institution was established in the year 1876 and is recognized as one of the oldest centers providing quality mental health care and treatment.

The Institute is mandated to be a tertiary care institute of Mental Health & Neurosciences and it is under the administrative control of the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Govt. of India.

Regular academic course in the Institute started in the year 2001 with the introduction of one year Diploma in Psychiatric Nursing (DPN). The DNB in Psychiatry was started in the year 2006. This was followed by the M. Sc Nursing (Psychiatric Nursing) in 2007; M. Phil in Psychiatric Social Work in 2009, M.D (Psychiatry) in 2010 and M. Phil in Medical and Social Psychology in 2011 which was later renamed as M. Phil in Clinical Psychology from 2014. The Ph.D. programme in Psychiatric Social Work (PSW) and Psychiatric Nursing was started in October 2017 with 3 (three) and 2 (two) intake respectively. The courses of the institute are affiliated to Gauhati University and recognized by Medical Counseling Committee / Rehabilitation Council of India / Indian Nursing Council. The courses are designed to serve the specific needs of the country in general and the Northeastern region in particular to develop the field of mental health. The DNB course has been discontinued from the year 2014.

The Institute provides patient care services by a multidisciplinary team of mental health professionals with the basic objective of providing equitable access to quality psychiatric care to all sections of the society and thus reducing the global burden of diseases. It also takes numerous initiatives for promotion of positive mental health in the country and reduces the stigma and prejudice associated in this field.
