

Online Certificate Course on Geriatric Care

(An initiative by Department of Psychiatric Nursing, LGBRIMH)

This course will help to develop competency of the registered nurses on geriatric mental health care.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Enhance nurses' knowledge & skills in assessing needs of older adults.
2. Develop nurse's skills to plan need based nursing intervention at institutional and community level.
3. Develop nurses competency in providing quality care to older adult

ELIGIBILITY: ANM,GNM,B.SC. NURSING

DURATION:12 weeks

ENROLMENT: From 15th March,2023

- Two Batches per year & 10 participants in one batch
- First Batch: April to June

NO COURSE FEES

LINK TO REGISTER:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSec-g_uwC6P64psFJ-PW6c40_u_b1KakFecEsr4uePVDML40Q/viewform

Methods of teaching:

Online interaction of 3 hours /week and self learning content, Assignments, E-learning materials, video recorded lectures, discussion forums in Google Classroom, Multipoint Videoconference via Zoom

- Offline: Two days physical contact classes and clinical exposure of Geriatric Mental Health Department at LGBRIMH in every four weeks.

Instructional modules: 3.

- Module –I: Basic Concept of Geriatric care
- Module –II: Physical and Mental Health Problems of Geriatric
- Module –III: Geriatric Nursing care

Method of evaluation:

Assignment submission, class attendance, online objective test

TEAM

Program Coordinator:

Dr. Arunjyoti Baruah, Professor & Head. Dept. of Psychiatric Nursing
Dr. Subhashish Nath, Associate Prof. & In-Charge, Dept. of Geriatric Mental Health
Dr. Kunjalata Gogoi, Asst. Professor, Psychiatric Nursing Dept.

Course coordinator:

Mrs. Chitra Bora, Nursing Tutor, Psychiatric Nursing
Mr. Sandeep Kollipara, Nursing Tutor, Psychiatric Nursing
Mrs. Angshu Lama, Assistant Professor (NMHP)
Computer Programmer: Mr. Utpal Borah