

Department of Psychiatric Social Work proposes

CERTIFICATE COURSE IN
PSYCHOSOCIAL COUNSELLING IN SUBSTANCE USE DISORDER

An Online Certificate Course

Course Co-ordinator

Dr. Elamurugu M.

Assistant Professor

Department of Psychiatric Social Work

LGBRIMH, Tezpur

An Initiative by the Department of Psychiatric Social Work
LGBRIMH, Tezpur

Objectives:

- To acquire basic knowledge about Psychosocial assessment and Intervention with regard to Substance use disorder.
- To attain MET/RPT and other Psychosocial Intervention skills for Substance use disorder.

Eligibility for fellowship program: Students pursuing or completed bachelor degree in Psychology/ Clinical Psychology / social work/ Nursing from a recognized university.

Duration of the course: Twelve Weeks

Assessment Overview: Each participant will be assessed under the following heads for completion of the course and certification

- 80 % Attendance is mandatory
- Submission of assignments after each module
- Participation and discussions in live online sessions
- Score in the final assignment

How to apply?

Candidate needs to send an application to the following Email ID: addictioncounselingdpsw@gmail.com

Outcome:

It will help them to acquire specific skills on psychosocial assessment and Interventions and apply them in the context of substance use disorder.

Session: 2 sessions in a year