

Department of Clinical Psychology

proposes

Certificate Course in BASIC SKILLS AND APPLICATION OF CLINICAL NEUROPSYCHOLOGY

An Online Certificate Course

Course Co-ordinator

Dr. Priyadarshee Abhishek

Assistant Professor

Department of Clinical Psychology

LGBRIMH, Tezpur

An Initiative by the Department of Clinical Psychology,
LGBRIMH, Tezpur

Objectives:

- Basics of brain-behaviour relationship
- Understanding of neuropsychology principles
- Overview of brain anatomy & lobe functions
- Neuropsychological perspective of psychiatric disorders
- Overview of neuropsychological assessments and interventions

Eligibility for fellowship program: Students pursuing or completed Master's degree in Psychology/ Clinical Psychology from a recognized university.

Duration of the course: Six Weeks

Assessment Overview: Each participant will be assessed under the following heads for completion of the course and certification

- Submission of assignments after each module
- Participation and discussions in live online sessions
- Score in the final assignment

How to apply?

Candidate needs to send an application to the following Email ID: cp@lgbrimh.gov.in

Outcome:

- It will enable the students to understand the relationship between brain and behaviour.
- It will also help them to understand the basic principles of neuropsychological assessments and intervention.